Throughout East High there is tradition. Even our yearbook is traditional. It is always red and grey with our grey eagle on the front. Certain contents have always been the same. This year our staff has made some changes with the desire of producing a better yearbook.

We hope that this blend of new and old will give you, our readers, pleasure and will reflect accurately the year 1966-67 at East High. May all future classes learn to accept and respect the transitions as well as the traditions of East High.

Foreword

The Eagle opens.

We step inside. All about us are the traditions that represent the stability and progress of East High. We see the new and the old, the changing and the unchanging, the transient and the permanent. We are among the sights, sounds, voices, and faces that weave this complex pattern.

The mighty eagle, standing proudly with wings widespread, reminds us of all those who have been proud to be called an East Eagle. Like those before us, we participate gladly in the annual Christmas giving.

We are a part of the laughter on the steps, the conversations in the halls, the discussions in the classrooms.

The clock, symbol of times past and timeless ideals, guides our movement as it did those who preceded us.

Time does not stand still. Changes occur. We see the Malone House become a place of study for our expanding student body.

We are introduced to the fascinations of business machines.

We delight in newly designed senior rings. Tradition and transition stand side by side at East. We are proud of the past, but we prepare for the future.

The 1966-67 Eagle honors the traditions and transitions that are a part of East High.

Our Leaders

Just as every great nation must have able and competent heads of state, every great institution must have qualified leaders. Our leaders are Mr. J. H. Windrow and Coach Martin.

Mr. Windrow works diligently for the betterment of East High. He plans our activities and always strives toward the excellence demanded of him. He attends all athletic programs and actively supports the many worthwhile projects sponsored during the school year. His door is open to all students who seek his advice. We are grateful for such a competent leader.

*Boyer died

Mr. Martin, our other leader, is definitely a man of action. He makes sure all is running smoothly and as it should be. He directs those who need directing and seeks to be a friend to all who will be a friend to themselves. We appreciate his untiring efforts.

Guidance Staff

Dear Vicky,

It's been real nice
being in English class
with you this last year and I wish you and the one you love all the good luck in the world.
See ya, Darryl Young

Making necessary class changes, advising students about college, solving individual problems, administering tests, planning career assembly programs and sponsoring guidance programs are but a few of the duties performed daily by the guidance staff. They are sincerely interested in every student and any problem which that student might have.

Vicky,
You are a real sweet girl. I'm really enjoyed knowing you here
at East. Lots of love in the future.
Jackie Harmon

The office assist Mrs. Greer in seeing that the administrative office of our school runs smoothly and efficiently. They are helpful to all students and visitors of East High.

The Civitan and Civinettes are service clubs that work to improve our school's facilities. This year they raised money by having car washes and by promoting the Nashville Business College basketball game. They are responsible for having the huge eagle painted in our gymnasium. The Civinettes held informal initiations and participated with the Civitans in a formal initiation of new members.

Thespians

Acting probably requires more assets, more education, more depth, and more character than any other profession in the world. Acting is not a business for the lazy or the undisciplined. It has something to offer to the individual who is not looking for glamour or excitement.

"Today well-lived
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision
of hope."

NFL

Members of the NFL are well aware of the preparation and presentation involved with each local or district forensic meet in which they compete. These students receive practical experience in public speaking by their participation at forensic meets held throughout the Nashville area. Under the direction of Mrs. Bruns, they have enjoyed a busy and successful year.

Yearbook Staff

Work on the 1967 Grey Eagle actually began in the summer of 1966. The editor of the Yearbook Staff spent a week at the University of Tennessee gathering ideas for copy, headlines, themes, and layouts.

With the beginning of a new school year, the whole staff came alive taking pictures, writing copy, designing layouts, cropping, indexing, copyreading, and typing. Much time and effort has been put into this publication of the 1967 Grey Eagle to bring to you an accurate picture of school life here at East High.

Constantly searching for new ideas.

Pep Club

Our Pep Club is the largest club here in school. This club is responsible for encouraging the spirit of East High's teams. A good member supports his team whenever it goes.

Bowling Club

The Bowling Club is made up of students who enjoy bowling as a competitive sport. Through competition with other schools they learn good sportsmanship while improving their skill as bowlers.

The Y-Teens sponsored by Mrs. Haynie, Miss Young, and Mrs. Greer is one of the largest girls clubs in the school. It is a service club associated with the YWCA, and it has many projects throughout the year.

*Nickie,
I have had a wonderful time this year becoming reacquainted with you. You are truly one of the sweetest girls
I know. I never will forget anything I learned in our little discussions. You have been a great comfort at times. Best of luck with Keary. Have fun this summer and good luck next year. I wish you the very best in life and I know you will get them all.*

A season of close calls and disheartening losses plagued our Eagle Team this year. Included on the varsity and B-team squads are some of the finest ball players in the 18th District. Although the season was marked by "ups and downs", the two squads gave a fine showing of themselves. The students of East High appreciate their dedicated efforts and hope for a better season next year.

I can really say that this has been my best year in school. And you are one of the main ones that helped to make it. You are a very nice girl and
 you have the best
 personality anyone
 could ever want.
 I'm glad that we are friends. I treasure your friendship
 very much.
 much more than
 I could ever write on paper. So I will leave you with the thought that I will be sad when you leave us this year. I only hope I can make a good
 senior next year.
 Keep that wonderful
